

Becky Eckenfels – Destination Specialist

For as long as I can remember I have loved to travel! My first trip abroad was to Ireland and England when I was 18 years old. By the time I had returned home, I knew that the travel industry was where I belonged. After many years of planning other people's trips for fun, I decided that it was time to make a career out of what I love to do, and I happily graduated from Travel Campus in February of 2013. I have been privileged to travel to many amazing places since my first jaunt across the Atlantic. Among the places I have been are New York, Ecuador, Italy, The Dominican Republic, Grand Cayman, The Bahamas, Mexico, Canada, and all over the western United States. I have cruised in the Caribbean and played at Disneyworld and Disneyland. My family and I have also been able to volunteer in Florida helping out with hurricane relief work. One of my favorite places in the world is Hawaii. Me and my husband lived on the island of Maui for a time before settling down in Montana to start a family. We have traveled to the islands many times and I have recently received my certification as a Hawaii Destination Specialist.

I love helping people plan their exciting new adventures and hearing about the amazing places they have been and are going. I like learning about different cultures and teaching others about different cultures and encouraging people to experience them for themselves. St Augustine said it best when he said, "The world is a book, and those who do not travel, read only one page." There are so many amazing places to see and people to meet and I love helping people to get to those places and be able to navigate them easily and comfortably.

Whether you are traveling for business, visiting family, going on a new and exciting adventure, or just kicking back and getting some much needed rest and relaxation, I am excited to help you with all of your travel needs!
